

Group Study: John Peters plans to lead a group study of the book, "Weird Church: Welcome to the Twenty-First Century", which explores a shift in thinking about the future of church ministry that focuses on different ways to reach people and becoming relevant in the community. Please add your name to a signup sheet, if interested. We will meet on Wednesday nights at 6:30 pm once we have enough commitments. You do not need to have read the book. Material for discussion will be copied and handed out a week in advance. It promises to be stimulating and inspiring! We hope you'll join in!

'Restorative' Yoga at Church: Karen Lawrence would like to conduct another yoga class. This time, a less-intensive version called "restorative yoga" will be offered. Poses are held but are much less strenuous, and there will be a break during the sessions. Ideal for ALL AGES! Participants should bring their own yoga mats or blankets and 2-3 pillows for support. Classes will take place in the Mayflower Room. The fee is $5 per session with all proceeds going to the church, and we're asking for a 5-week commitment from people to ensure participation. If interested, please let Karen know in person or by email at karenka347@yahoo.com

Blankets for Kids: We are hosting a program called Blankets 4 Kids, a program of Child's Hope. It is going to be on October 16 at 7 pm. It's kind of like a quilting be, only instead of quilting we will be making fleece blankets for children who are experiencing abuse and neglect and entering the foster care system. The contact people are Judy Buck or Carol McAdam who live in Springwells. There's a sign up sheet in the Mayflower Room.

Sleeping Mats for the Homeless Project: This is an ongoing project where anyone can make sleeping mats from plastic shopping bags. The group meets on Mondays from 6-8 pm at First Presbyterian Church, 600 Brady St. Dearborn, MI 48124. Bring your bags and your friends. For more information, call Charlie at (313) 506-0907, or see the orange flyer in the sanctuary.

Book Club is reading Anything Is Possible by Elizabeth Strout. We will meet and discuss the book on Monday, October 21 at 7:00 p.m.

Downriver for Veterans: We continue to collect non-perishable food items for Downriver for Veterans located on Fort Street in Wyandotte. This organization needs ongoing support to assist local resource-limited veterans. You can place your donations in the Totes of Love bin in the back of the Sanctuary.
